Custom E-Newsletter Production/Promotion

Let us create and send a custom e-newsletter to our email database based on an educational, solution oriented and timely topic relevant to your target audience, and support this with prominent, integrated banner advertising and brand ID for your company.

Have an Original E-Media Concept that You Would Like to Execute?

If you have another idea that has worked well for your company, or want to experiment with a new idea, let our cutting-edge marketing and technology teams work with you to deploy a fully customized solution to your specs to reach the DIGITAL PLANT community.

Webinar Production and/or Promotions

Have an idea for a timely and solution based webinar that would be of interest to the DIGITAL PLANT community? We can provide your company with turnkey production and/or promotion of your webinar. Not only will we assist you in the creation of your presentation and promote it to our email list, your company will get the contact info for all those who signed up to attend. We'll also post your presentation in the webinar library that will be showcased on the main page of www.digitalplantexpo.com.

Or let us come up with a timely/solution based educational topic that your company can sponsor. We can create an interesting/non-pitch topic that will attract O/Os and EPCs – and your company will get contact info for all those who sign-up for the webinar!

Already Have Your Own Webinar? We can promote your webinar to our email list as well as post your e-presentation in the webinar library that will be showcased on the home page of www.digitalplantexpo.com. Immediately generate highly qualified and targeted leads!
